The book is broken into chapters on cities and regions the author visited and explains which business the mafia has infiltrated or controls in that city or region. For all this flamboyance, David Lane shows just how unglamorous the Mafia is. Hardcoverpages. Lane begins his tour in Sicily where the Cosa Nostra holds sway and works his way northwards showing us which branch of the Mafia runs each area and how they make their money. Scattered among the stories of mafia infiltration and intimidation in the Mezzogiorno, southern Italy Lane does a good job of including some stories about the long rich history the Italian peninsula has experienced over the millenniums as well as the describing the beautiful scenery the country is famous .
