In my Christians Going To Hell with my friends who are Christians I have asked them if they really believe that every Muslim, every atheist, every Hindu, every Buddhist and every non-circumcised, non-baptised or excommunicated person that has ever existed is now burning in hell? I admit, it is a sad thought. Whoever ascribes partners to the One God, God shall forbid Paradise for him and his abode shall then be the great Fire. You named your dog after a tree? My opinion is based on the following points: This implies, of course, that if you do not swear to Christ then you are going to Hell, so you'd damn well better convert. Whether or not the New Testament says anything about Hell specifically is irrelevant.
