Both sides need to stretch their bandwidth to have a meeting of the minds. Changing with the times is essential for achieving success in the 21st century. When leaders micromanage, people under-perform.

These behaviours are just what is needed to create a connected and committed workforce.

Laura shares leadership insights that are applicable to every area of your life, from professional relationships to spouses and children. The theme of the evening was "embracing diversity" and somehow I knew that they didn't mean the tin man, the lion, or the scarecrow. When leaders micromanage, people under-perform.

Increasingly knowledge workers will offer services on their own schedule so if you are still working within the old model, don't put your head in the sand!
