FHTE is easily the best and most time consuming of the bunch, a whopper of a novel that took three weeks to truly plow. A challenging young private is transferred to a unit where the commander is determined to make his life hell.

But Jones now had a problem, one that he finessed in The Pistol. The jungles of Guadalcanal. The de-evolution is manifested most powerfully in the final novel of the trilogy, Whistle, which was published posthumously in While each story stands alone, the trilogy thematically connects throughout.
