Students shared words or sayings they use on a regular basis that they took from a song, or a vernacular term that originated in Africa, now with an English twist. Dancers from any studio are welcome to join, and no audition is necessary. IamagraduateofSt. Kim showcased her choreography at several performance venues such as the Merce Cunningham Studio Theater. Our goal is to instill not only a love for dancing in our students, but also a sense of pride in their achievements that can serve them throughout their lifetime.

There are choreography opportunities with dance and theatre companies. Student teachers in our community that have studied dance at MJC are currently credentialed teachers at Beyer, Davis, Gregori, and Ceres High Schools, and many of our dance students currently teach in many of the dance studios in Stanislaus County.
