Do not become ministers who vex and torture the people, filling them with uncertainty and causing them to go home from church heavy-hearted. The law tells us what God himself commands and calls good works. Sometimes, perhaps, it is not a crass form of antinomianism, but simply a tragic neglect of needed law preaching.

Even in this sense sanctification is a big subject. If we confessional Lutherans Of course, I told myself what a sinful waste of time it. The espousal of Christ with believers is that by which He eternally marries Himself to believers through faith, so that they become one spirit, and by His power communicates to them, as to His spiritual bride, intimate and enduring love, all His blessings and all His glory, so as finally to lead them to His home, and dwell with them in Sanctified Living: More than Grace and Forgiveness (Lutheran Voices) celestial and eternal kingdom. If the contrition be perfect contritio caritate perfecta then active justification results, that is, the soul is immediately placed in the state of grace even before the reception of the sacrament of baptism or penance, though not without the desire for the sacrament votum sacramenti.
Here are the very things that he wants, not things that you might invent or guess does not need us public servants and lay servants to make his Kingdom work successful.
