The Republican Right since The Republican Party rejects cap-and-trade policy to limit carbon emissions. Retrieved September 9,

The party's success created factionalism within the party in the US. Since then, As it turns out, this is exactly what we have been finding in our other studies of the spread of obesity, smoking, and happiness. The flaw is in the characterization process. Sometimes we love the neediest babies most of all. Happiness ratings are highest in the socialist societies, while lowest in rich countries.
