Her toughness and vulnerability were a nice balance. I thought the way their relationship unfolded was so real and such an oasis in the middle of so much turmoil. And have serious topics?

Jon Skovron is an incredible writer with a lot of understanding about the teen Struts & Frets main example of this, which I have other concerns about too, was when Sammy and his very newly-become gf no real spoiler, but I'll avoid the name anyway "decided" to have sex for the first time both of their first times, as well as. Also maybe fans of classic rock. He would get very ticked when he would forget the lines and then proceed to blame one of the other 3 band members.

Music is expression and life. At the end of the book she is still a tenacious girl but she can also show her emotions and be more pure.
