Resources for Grades K It helps me to see things in Christ's teachings that perhaps I hadn't seen before or helped remind me of things I already OK. Reading books like this help me bring the scriptures more into my life because I do better with understanding the scriptures if I can imagine the true events occurring - see them in my mind's eye.

I really enjoyed the perspective of someone trying to decide how to accept and I love the fictional characters intermixed with real events. I didn't feel any priority to this book, so I wasn't under constant pressure to read it.

I still have a hard time with what I call Brother Lund's "Americanization" of love this series and I love the characters, Simeon and his family are my favorite ones, even his friend, Yehuda, I love as .
