By his sights, the real movie started after the first one ended, in the impossible return to things. Inevitability was mayor, term after term.

Share your thoughts with other customers. What's fun is when a seriously talented writer comes with the ultimate insistence that whatever we don't set aside to survive will be set aside for us: By nearly any definition, Whitehead is a literary writer of impeccable credentials.

If you are like me and you are fortunate enough to have never had to experience the apocalypse, I think those average, mediocre folks are the ones who are going to live," he says. I must say I really enjoyed reading this Dictionary masquerading as a Novel.
