This problem is the main reason that the UK is leaving the EU. Immigration, Islam, and the West is timely and riveting reading.

He is stating what is the case, and he is saying that time cannot be rolled. And it was hard, he points out, to follow Europe's rules and embrace its values when Europeans themselves were rewriting those rules and reassessing those values. Yet although Caldwell, a conservative American, believes that European immigration has not been a success, at least for the host societies, he is not anti-immigrant and says that Reflections on the Revolution in Europe: Immigration is a great supporter of the American melting pot. The prospects for European peoples is indeed grim if birth rates do not substantially increase, although it may already be too late, even if they do, for some countries e. I learned a great deal. I would like to make this more about some personal observations as an American and lived in western Europe from to It's a hate-filled read.
