Abby is at the center of it all, trying to maintain everyone's happiness. A lot of good things happen and the story has a somewhat happy ending.

There is a scene between James and his father, who suffers from the dementia as of Latest to First First to Latest. I like how the community got involved in both a positive and negative way to the secrets revealed by Zanna. Even though this novel takes place in today's world it's almost as if you travel back in time reading about the Amish lifestyle.

Usually there is not so large of a age difference in the characters and it really wasn't that on of the things Abby Lambrig Teaser:
