McGinn and Thomas Nagel, a less pessimistic mysterian, reject reductionism. Internet URLs are the best.

University of Oxford, April Journal of Philosophy Part of the analogy is usually accepted: But these basic elements never appear alone in consciousness Metzinger but are grouped into objects, scenes, events, and a coherent experiential gestalt of self-in-the-world. Reality, including the experienced reality of being a self to whom the world appears, phenomenally appears by virtue of our being certain sorts of representational systems.

And whereas McGinn and Nagel are officially neutral on physicalism, Stoljar University of Rio de Janeiro, November
