Sometimes with disapproving older siblings or conservative grandparents. King James hand picked the books to be included huh?

Not about anything. As a young man of 23 moved to Israel, and in the middle of the He created a new religion based on some obscure notions, and tried to pawn it off as the new deal. I believe GrimEngineer was talking about the governance and organization, not necessarily the doctrine. Some of the churches even today are so lost...Why?

There seem to be an assumption that because I'm not a Christian, I no longer care to bless you all.
