The weaving in of the multiple storylines are handled quite well and kept one on the edge wondering what's happening in the other storyline at that moment! This book is not yet featured on Listopia.

Soon, she begins to exhibit a bizarre personality disorder. Imagine writing
The narrative style is pretty evocative, though I feel that THE REVENGE OF KAIVALYA times it was a bit more wordy and certain parts were superfluous. What they uncover is too incredible and terrible for words. It is very rare that I feel the need to stop every other thing and finish reading any book.
