The main character, Carmine Delmonico is a dedicated detective, who is Off (Carmine Delmonico series) to solving the heinous crimes that spew throughout the books, by manic serial killers whose motives largely seem nonsensical until bits and pieces of the story paint a larger, heart-wrenching story Off (Carmine Delmonico series) can, depending on your personality make you actually feel sympathy for the killer. My biggest criticism of the book is the same as that of other reviewers, that there are a few red herrings and details that are not explained or tied up by the end of the story.
