Culturally, politically, financially, socially, emotionally, and spiritually aware Also everything happened really fast, literally less than 24 hours after meeting up for the first time ever these two are fucking and mated and This was more like the first few chapters in a book rather than a whole book.

The understanding of vampires, how the coalition originated, their code of ethics. You burst into laughter with them as they merely think a funny thought. I feel like this book was just one big contradiction and trust me you don't want to read this to find out what I'm talking about it's just not worth it.

I really enjoyed all the characters their personalities, the closeness of the relationship. I found this story to be a unique take on the shifter world.
