I was given an opportunity to share this passage on the night the retreat ended and was able to share with the group past ways in which God had David (Personal Reflections Series) and seen me and my family and encourage them to be attentive to His hearing and seeing of. David was an incredible man, both in his times of sin and his times of obedience. Enjoy each moment you give—indeed, practice Your Presence every moment of every day. Aug17, RisrateditreallylikeditShelves: Nov 13, Jamee rated it really liked it. I shall miss him deeply. I can now bring myself to God and allow Him to love me as I am. Retreats do not need to be battery chargers which suggest that the retreat is the real spiritual place. Instead, the retreat is a laboratory to practice new experiences with God that can be brought into the world in which I and others live which is the real place of spiritual reality. I am a hot mess.
